

The CMARD2 is a leading organization of Vietnam in scientific research, consultant, training and education and development of human resources in accordance with the international standards for agricultural industry and for the society with the modern material facilities and technology, the team of lectures with high level of logic, and having the ability in solving the problems relating to the management and development in the practical economy and society.